A Letter from the Development Director

Dear Prospective Sponsor:

FAITH. We are stepping out of faith, trust, and believing on the promise of March 11:24, boldly stating that “we speak success over our 1st Annual Jumppin’ 4 Jesus Double Dutch Jump Rope Tournament. As our tournament date of Saturday, March 27, 2010, draws near, we invite you on behalf of The Bible Stories Theatre of Fine & Performing Arts [BSTFPA] family to not only be a part of the team, but we are honored to have you as a prospective sponsor of our AAU –Amateur Athletic Union sanctioned Jumppin 4 Jesus Double Dutch Fund Raising Tournament. We need your help! Soaring expenses make supplemental funding a necessity. We are continually seeking out avenues and resources for financial assistance. It is our hope that we will be able to solicit our business community in an effort to provide monies necessary for our teams of children, coaches, and volunteers to compete locally in this first benefit endeavor in which we are currently involved. With your help, we will be able to continue to grow and expose our Inner City children and youth to the greater opportunities available to them.

We are inviting you to partner with us by becoming an annual sponsor of our Jumppin 4 Jesus Double Dutch Tournament. Your company will receive recognition as a sponsor at the event.

Your support will ensure that not only our Inner City children and youth, but, all energetic children and youths, coaches, and volunteers will receive the opportunity to continue on in achieving acclaim through positive and constructive activity on behalf of the children. Thank you in advance for your consideration, support, and assistance.

All of the folks here at BSTFPA who have been involved with this endeavor have a great respect for the power that sports and physical activity can wield. Such involvement has helped shape each of our lives.

Theatrical Stage, Fine & Performing Arts, Physical Activity and Sports in the Lives of our children & youth: Physical and Mental Health Dimensions from an Interdisciplinary Approach was created to highlight the multiplicity of ways in which physical activity and sport have become an integral part of children’s lives. Coupled with stage, it examines the benefits children derive from participation in the strict discipline of theatrical learning, physical activity and sport; the barriers that prevent them from reaching their full potential; and the kinds of environments in which children & youth learn how to develop and foster the best parts of themselves both on and off the stage, and playing fields.

Without your support, this fund raising effort will not be possible. We are in their debt!

Sincerely,

Janet Thomas

The Embarking of This 1st Annual Jumppin`4 Jesus Double Dutch Jump Rope Fund Raiser effort to benefit ...

... The ancient Egyptian stage production of Nefertiti 18th Dynasty.

Back by popular demand, this historical masterpiece has been updated, revised and improved for the community stage to be a new favorite of children and youth; and adults alike. This is a two-fold purpose to offer quality jump rope teams that not only develops technical jumping skills, but also promotes fitness and teamwork; and builds self esteem, develop confidence and superb leadership skills and encourage good sportsmanship while helping to promote the sport of Jump Rope.

2010 JUMPPIN 4 JESUS DOUBLE DUTCH TOURNAMENT

BACKGROUND

Double Dutch is a lightning – quick team sport involving two jump ropes, turned eggbeater style around one or two jumpers, testing speed, strength, agility, and creativity. The sport, believed to have originated with Ancient Egyptian, Phoenician and Chinese rope-makers, has grown in popularity as a competitive sport.

Police Detective Walker and his partner, Ulysses Williams, had been looking for a new sport like Double Dutch for a long time. Once they found it, they spend months making up rules; they began to dream of having a tournament.

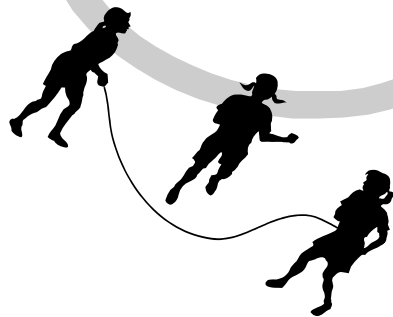

It wasn't long before children were jumping Double Dutch to the new rules. The two policemen were given a new nickname: The Double Dutch Cops.

On Valentine's Day in 1974, the first Double Dutch tournament was held in New York City. Almost 900 children competed.

Today in the U.S. more than 100,000 athletes nationwide and in foreign countries participate in Double Dutch programs for the chance to compete in the World Invitational Championship.
