Wat's lov gotta du wit it

An aspiring gospel singer begins a chaotic two-identity search for love in all the wrong places. Tired and frustrated with the loneliness of her heart, Michael stops at a place she drives by daily on her way home from college classes, "The Lonely Hearts" nightclub. Stopping in one night, Michael beholds the most breathe-takingly handsome man she's ever laid eyes upon, Cameron Brown. Fallen under the romantic spell of the handsome balladeer, Michael gives up all sensible reasoning to claim his heart.

PASS THE PLATE PLEASE

Written by Janet Thomas

What happens when a new minister steps in the shoes of a retired pastor and has plans for growing a church trapped in yesteryear? Chaos and mayhem is sure to come. To defray cost of designs and renovations, he passes the collection plate a bit too much for the congregation. Unbeknownst to him, plans are underway for his oust.

NEFERTITI 18TH DYNASTY

COMING TO A THEATRE NEAR YOU IN 2012

I am often asked_ rather snidely: "Where is Nefertiti in the Bible? I thought YOU were about the Bible?" My answer has always been and will continue to be: Well, there is no direct mention of Queen Nefertiti in the Bible; however, from Genesis to Revelation, mention of Egypt and pharaoh are mentioned time and time again. Thus, the story of Nefertiti's life on biblical stage.

The production of Nefertiti 18th Dynasty was written not only from extensive Bible research, but from historical text on Egypt, and Nefertiti herself.

My hope is that the viewers of the introduction of the painful life of Queen Nefertiti will open the eyes of all peoples that indeed The Lord God is a jealous God. And, power, wealth, silver and gold, are exterior signs of happiness, but what of the inner man and his soul? The holy scripture ask the question in Matthew 16:26 "What good will it be for a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul?"

Like myself, there are millions that are attracted to Egyptian history and the mystery of Queen Nefertiti. My research of her life brought me to a popular belief held by many Jews and Christians that monotheism discredited the traditional Egyptian pantheon of nature based deities and paved the way for Egyptians to acknowledge the power of Yahweh as displayed in the Exodus. My research led me to the revelation that Amenhotep II was Pharaoh of Egypt when Moses first fled Egypt...

...unfortunately, this powerful, stunningly beautiful, and controversial queen disappeared entirely from Egyptian historical records. To this day, it is still unclear what really happened to her. But, we do know that there are consequences for worshipping false gods. And I want to tell that story on stage.

Jeremiah 43:12

I will have him set Egypt's temples on fire, and he will either burn or carry off their idols. He will destroy the sacred monuments at the temple of the sun-god. Then Nebuchadnezzar will pick the land clean, just like a shepherd picking the lice off his clothes. And he will return safely home.

FOR THE KIDZ

ONCE UPON A TIME SHOP
BY ED KEE

A musical about love, forgiveness, and the little time we have to give it.

Bring to life this inspiring Broadway-style children's musical about love, forgiveness, and the little time we have to give it. Once Upon a Time Shop focuses on an orphanage around the early 1900s where, under the watchful eye of "crotchety" caretaker Miss Curmudgeon, the children make clocks to earn their keep. When the clock shop receives a large clock order with a strict deadline, Miss Curmudgeon pushes the children to work even harder. However, they soon discover that one of the oldest clocks in the clock shop - Grandfather Clock - can talk. With Grandfather Clock's spiritual wisdom, the children begin to see Miss Curmudgeon in a new light - as a lonely person who needs to know the Lord Jesus Christ. Ideal for children's choirs of all sizes, this moving 45-minute musical features fun-to-sing new songs and heart-warming drama - perfect for performing any time of the year. Songs include: Ain't

This The Life? - Overture - Pray For A Change - Put Yourself In Her Shoes - Ragtime - She Can't Do That! - The Father's Clock - The Time Of Your Life - This Is My Moment - This Is The Moment - Time Is A Four Letter Word - Time Is A Gift From The Lord.
